

Non-Gaussian posteriors: the discriminating test

Per-observation mixtures with opposite-sign g/l correlation - no single covariance describes them; gauss_hierarchical still gets the exact moment-matched one.
Read the bottom row: with a perfect score there is little to correct and the unweighted sum is asymptotically exact, so only the imperfect-score row reflects real use.

